Morning on CHANGE

It was another record day on the exchange. Spurred by the further rise of sugar to 4.52 and the report of the sale of March futures at 4.64, stocks went up another notch. Oils went up another 1-4 to 6 1-4, 1800 shares changing hands. McBryde also was up 1-4, going to 6 7-8.

Wahala made one of the biggest jumps in recent months when it advanced 2 1-2 between boards and another 2 1-2 this morning, the last sale being at par, the first time it has reached par in months. Oahu Sugar and Ewa went up 1-2. Hawaiian Sugar jumped to 36, a gain of 1, while Onomea rose 1 to 33. Pioneer made a gain of 1-4 and H. C. & S. 3-4.

A noteworthy transaction was the sale of five shares of C. Brewer & Co. at 300. This marks a rise of 25 since it last figured in the list of trades.

One decline was recorded. That was in Pineapple, which dropped to 34 1-2, a loss of 1-2.

"You got a rise in pay, didn't you?" "Yes, but it didn't do any good." "Why not?" "I talk in my sleep and my wife found out about it."—Toledo Blade.

Messrs. Wichman &amp; Company.

Dear Sirs: For years I had carried a delicate chronometer watch. My work changed from that of a city business man to railroad construction. I was riding on passenger, freight and construction trains, in buggies and wagons, over rough roads and on horseback. My chronometer would not stand the rough work and refused to keep anything like accurate time. A friend recommended a Waltham, so bought a "Riverside."

During the first four months I was able to compare it with the "tick" from Washington two or three times each week, and during that time it did not vary over eleven seconds. It was wound irregularly, but gave the above result and has never failed me since. My chronometer is in the safety deposit box, where I put it ten years ago. I need it no more.

Respectfully,

C. P. McAVOY.

TEN TRUE BILLS
VOTED BY JURY;
MORE TO COME

Five men, confronted by ten indictments on charges of first-degree murder, forgery and gambling, respectively, were to be arraigned before Circuit Judge Ashford at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The true bills against the accused men were returned late yesterday afternoon by the territorial grand jury, which met again today to continue its investigations.

The indictment for murder is against Benjamin Sinton, held for the killing of William De Fries, a member of the Coast Artillery, last Saturday night. It is understood the authorities as yet have only circumstantial evidence against the prisoner.

The other indictments are as follows: Frank Leroy Coleman, forgery; Edwin H. Lewis, two gambling charges, and T. E. Scott and Samuel D. McMillan, three charges each, for gambling.

The alleged gamblers were released by the court on their personal recognizance until their arraignment today, the other two remaining in custody.

The inquirers this afternoon renewed their investigation of the case against the two soldiers arrested in company with two young Hawaiian girls, the daughter and niece of Representative David Kuphea; also that of the Japanese accused of a statutory crime against five small Japanese girls. In addition, a number of other gambling charges which have developed recently are to receive the jurors' attention, with possibly additional indictments resulting.
